

Research and Development Cell

The College has established a Research and Development Cell to promote Research activities. The cell facilitates consultancy projects, encourages exposure to legal platforms like judiciary, AI intelligence and explores opportunities in various legal fields.

Consultancy Projects and Collaborations

Various legal projects are undertaken by faculty members.

Incubation Centre / Start-ups / Entrepreneurship Cell

The College provides central facilities such as Library resources and digital facilities to support research and academic activities.